

I went back through the Albums I have and found a few more pictures that could be of use for the project or I just thought were interesting. These are not in any particular order.

Christmas at the Burt's

I believe this is the same Christmas at the farm as the other picture, Janet is still in the same chair.

I believe this is Shirley and Eileen

Timmy, Teri, Allison and Gary.

The nun on the left is sister Phillip, a friend of Aunt Rita's. I think the person with their back to the camera is Shirley Frasier LaBounty. Standing is Janet and of course Grammy.

Grammy and Rita.

Grammy and Pepe with Rita in her Postulant habit.

This looks like Grammy, Rita, Eileen and Allison.

I think my mother told me this was Grammy and Pepe with Eileen and Shirley and that the man in the background was Pepe's father, but That was quite a few years ago, so I am not positive.

Except for the corn stalk in the middle of Shirley's face, this is a pretty good picture of the two of them in the garden.

My guess is that there aren't too many pictures of Bud in later years. This is a good one of both Jack and Bud.

Shirley in her drum majorette outfit. The picture says Memorial Day 1944

Pat's 77th birthday lunch.

Shirley left and Eileen in the middle, don't know who the other two are. I think my mom told me the little girl was the daughter of a friend of hers.

This one doesn't apply to the project but is a good picture of Pepe and Fran's 3 oldest.

I was told this is Shirley and Eileen the year they worked at the beach.

I believe this is Eileen and Shirley with their first borns.
